

NC AGRITOURISM NETWORKING ASSOCIATION

2007 MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Active Member: Farmers currently operating or aspiring to operate an agritourism or direct marketing operation and paying active member dues shall have voting rights and may serve as an officer or district representative. Extension agents who are agritourism farmers may choose to become active members or elect to remain the Sponsor category. There will be one vote per farm. All members of the same family are considered Active members, but have only one vote/farm.

Century Farm Members: Century Farm owners are recognized and honored as Active members; membership is free; signs are free and will be sent upon request. Call the Public Affairs Office at 919-733-4216 for information on the Century Farm program. Documentation of ownership of the farm in the same family for at least 100 years establishes membership.

Sponsor Member: Individuals, county fairs, organizations, and/or firms whose activities or programs are pertinent to the affairs of the Association and who are interested in supporting agritourism and rural tourism. Examples: farmers, extension agents; hotels, in-town B&Bs, farm stores, restaurants; rural craftspersons; farm agencies, rural lending institutions, Chambers of Commerce or Visitors Bureaus, economic developers; state or local tourism professionals, other rural tourism supporters. Sponsor members shall not have voting rights. Most members of this category are "Agritourism Service Providers." Sponsor members may be from other states. Signs for Sponsors are $3.50/sign and mailing costs if necessary.

Junior Member: Individuals or youth organizations, enrolled in senior high school or college-age, aspiring to operate an agritourism farm or direct marketing operation with an interest in educational opportunities. Junior members shall not have voting rights.

Send application & return with check payable to "NC ANA"

Membership dues are from January – December of the current year.

Membership dues for new members collected after October 15 will be prorated to the next year.
